

Thok-Naath language teacher Jarweng Educational Development

JOB TITLE: Thok-Naath language teacher
JOB TYPE: Internship
LOCATION: 4077 Fairmount Ave, San Diego, CA 92105

We are a non-profit organization, specializing in providing the underserved community a way to connect with their identity and express themselves through culture and language.

GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION

The Nuer language teacher has to be an open-minded individual who is aligned with Jarweng Educational development's vision of sustaining our heritage across two worlds. The teacher is responsible for making the lesson plan, making sure students are attending, communicating with our administration if there is a problem, and also making sure the students are getting the benefit of this program.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE JOB

Education:

High school completion is preferred but not a requirement.
Certification or fluency in the Nuer language is a requirement.
Capable of communication in English is essential.

Experience:

Experience is not needed as we will be offering a training program for teachers. We will be working with you to help you become the teacher we aspire to have at Jarweng Educational Development.
